

The Kentucky Native American Heritage Commission and Western Kentucky University's Office of Diversity Programs invite you to attend the

Southeastern Native American Education Summit

November 20-21, 2009
Kentucky Museum Building
Western Kentucky University

REGISTER NOW!

The conference will help you better understand the history of American Indians of Kentucky and the southeastern region and provide resources for you to take to your classrooms.

Summit goals are:

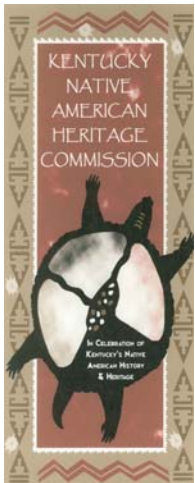

- ◆ To address specific issues Native Americans face in the Commonwealth as well as the entire southeastern region of the country
- ◆ To raise awareness of Kentucky Native history to residents and visitors

What you will learn:

- ◆ Continuing cultural traditions
- ◆ Cultural diversity among southeastern tribes
- ◆ Contemporary issues
 - Graves protection
 - Education
 - Health
 - Religious freedom
 - Recognition
- ◆ Critical analysis of American Indians in literature
- ◆ Recognizing and teaching against stereotypes
- ◆ Traditional knowledge

Your registration fee for the 2-day summit includes:

- ◆ Lesson Plans
- ◆ Educational Resources
- ◆ Lunch each day

REGISTRATION INFORMATION:
WKU Office of Diversity Programs
270-745-5066

ricardo.nazariocolon@wku.edu

jackie.pillow@wku.edu

<http://heritage.ky.gov/knahc/>

Registration Fees:

Preregistration before November 1, 2009 - $35
Late Registration After November 1, 2009 - $45
On Site - $55

Students with valid ID – Free (meals not included)

Make checks payable to: Office of Diversity Programs, WKU (no credit cards accepted)

1906 College Heights Blvd. #21025

Bowling Green, KY 42101-1025

Attn: Ricardo Nazario- Colon