

39th Annual
Kentucky Heritage Council
 Archaeology Conference

Saturday, March 5, 2022 (Morning Session)
8:45 - 9:00 am	Craig Potts and Nicole Konkol (Kentucky Heritage Council) - Opening Comments and KHC Update
9:00 - 9:20 am	Ronald Grayson and Nichole Sorensen-Mutchie (Fort Campbell Cultural Resources Program) - "I Wanna Go Home, They Need Me:" Archaeological Investigation of German POW Camp D-D, Fort Campbell, KY
9:20 - 9:40 am	Renée M. Bonzani, Bruce L. Manzano , Matthew J. Davidson, Dalton Gauri, Jack White, Ashley Whitten, Alex Reis, Lisa Guerre, Thomas Royster, and Andrea Erhardt (University of Kentucky and Western Kentucky University) - When and Why was Maize (Zea mays) Eaten in the Midwest US: Using Maize and Deer (Odocoileus virginianus) Stable Isotope Data to Test a Niche Construction Hypothesis and the "Canopy Effect"
9:40 - 10:00 am	Break
10:00 - 10:20 am	Jennifer Jordan Hall , Cheryl A. Johnston, Kevin R. Schwarz, Andrea D. Crider , and Taylor J. Bryan (KYK9 Search and Reunite Services, LLC, Grave Matters Consultancy Group, LLC, and ASC Group, Inc.) - Using Human Remains Detection Dogs as an Emerging Method to Find Unmarked Prehistoric and Historic Burials
10:20 - 10:40 am	Jon C. Endonino (Department of Languages & Cultural Studies, Anthropology, and Sociology, Eastern Kentucky University) - Not-So-Great Expectations - Investigations at the Killer Tree Rock Shelter (15JA122), Jackson County, Kentucky
10:40 - 11:00 am	Question and Answer / Discussion - Morning Presentations
11:00 - 11:20 am	KYOPA meeting
11:20 am - 12:00 pm	Lunch

Saturday, March 5, 2022 (Afternoon Session)

12:00 – 12:20 pm	Sara Deurell (Corn Island Archaeology, LLC) - Archaeological Approaches to Kentucky's Mineral Spring Resorts
12:20 – 12:40 pm	Alexander M. Metz and Katharine V. Alexander (Department of Anthropology, University of Kentucky) - From Feast to Forest: Impacts of Shell Middens on Plant Communities
12:40 – 1:00 pm	Edward Jakaitis (National Park Service), Carolyn Mikowski (University of Massachusetts, Boston), Dr. Katie Algeo (Western Kentucky University) and George Crothers (University of Kentucky) - Community Engagement in Cultural Resource Management at Mammoth Cave National Park
1:00 – 1:20 pm	Vanessa N. Hanvey (University of Kentucky) - Preliminary Results of a Procrustes Analysis Investigating Stone Toolmaking at the Canton (15Tr1) and Lawrence (15Tr33) Sites, Trigg County, Kentucky
1:20 – 1:40 pm	Break
1:40 – 2:00 pm	Katharine Napora , George Crothers, Lisa Guerre, Philip Mink, and Laura Waldman (University of Kentucky) - Multi-Method Analysis of the Webb Museum Trough: A Case Study in Employing Heritage Sciences to Illuminate the Stories of Historical Artifacts
2:00 – 2:20 pm	Cheryl Claassen (Appalachian State University) - Stalking Cassis sp. (Helmet shells) in the Archaeological Record of Eastern North America
2:20 – 2:40 pm	Jacob Ray , Thomas Jennings, Ashley Smallwood, and Andrea Guaghan (University of Louisville) - Evaluating the Maximum Entropy Method for Site Predictive Modeling in Daniel Boone National Forest
2:40 – 3:00 pm	Question and Answer / Discussion – Afternoon Presentations
3:00 – 3:20 pm	Break
3:20 - 3:50 pm	KYOPA - LAW video: Pioneer Textiles
3:50 – 4:15 pm	SEAC – Karen Stevens (Kentucky Heritage Council) – Let's host SEAC in Kentucky !!! discussion
4:45 – 5:45 pm	Cheryl Claassen – T-Shirt Social
5:45 – 6:00 pm	Nicole Konkol (Kentucky Heritage Council) – Closing Remarks

