

“I Have A Dream 2020”

By: Jinniah Ali

A black man’s life was once again taken from us
Knee to his neck, suffocating, scared, muffled words saying “I can’t breathe”

Is there a possibility to keep away from death's cold reach

Times are changing the world is watching

Marching, Shouting, Yelling, Rioting

Anger, Sadness, Numbness, Deliverance

Martin Luther King, Jr. would look at the world today

See the pain and suffering

See the tiredness and the yearning

Once again for his “I Have A Dream”

To show the way to retribution

To show we can speak the truth

Fight for what is right

And in the end once again

Sing the words Free at Last! Free at Last!

Thank God Almighty, we are free at last!
