

Kentucky Heritage Council

Archaeology Month

A Day for Volunteers and Advocates

at the intersection of Capital and Fourth Streets, Frankfort, Kentucky

Saturday, September 27, 9am - Noon

Have you ever wondered how archaeologists know where to put those big squares they excavate? Come join us and we'll show you how. Volunteers will be partnered with professional archaeologists to learn more about how to identify archaeological sites. We'll work together on mapping, shovel test excavation, soil documentation and screening, mapping, and field artifact identification. Participants must be 16 years old or older. Pre-registration is required prior to September 19, 2025. Registration is capped at 30 attendees.

Name

Email Address

Mailing Address

Phone Number

Age

Please complete your registration form and email your completed form to Nicole.Konkol@ky.gov. You can also contact Nicole with any questions about this event. Attendees will need to provide their own water, sunscreen, bug spray, and gloves. You will receive an email before the event with more information. Thank you for your interest!

