Main Street Monday!

There will be no newsletter next week as we will be on the road. It is going to be a busy few weeks. Our team will be working in eastern KY in Cumberland, Benham, & Lynch and Pineville on March 11th and the CEDIK team will join us in Middlesboro March 12th.

KYMS will be in Owenton this Wednesday and Beattyville on Friday.

If you have items for the March 18th newsletter please send them in asap.

Registration is open!

SEEKING QUALIFIED PRESENTATIONS!

We encourage Main Street practitioners and passionate local leaders to submit a proposal that will serve all the attendants of the conference. Please submit your session proposal by March 15, 2019 (session leaders will be notified by March 21, 2019).

Proposal submission form can be found on the web-site.

Program Manager

La Grange Kentucky Main Street
Part-time

Effectively work as the liaison for the Board and be an enthusiastic advocate for the La Grange Main Street District while collaborating as an authority on information, resources and programs relating to revitalization initiatives. The person must be flexible and able to thrive in a high energy environment; taking initiative on projects that are often independent of Board direction. Strong creativity and communication skills are a must and demonstrated managerial skills such as the ability to multi-task, delegate numerous assignments/ responsibilities of the organization is required. See their Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/LaGrangeKYMainStreetProgram/> for more information or to apply.

It was great to see Katie Meyer and check out some of the venues for the 40th Anniversary Conference with SHPO Craig Potts and KHC staff, Jenn Ryall & Christina Sabol, who were in town for the Archeology conference.

This Saturday, March 9th is Northern KY Restoration Weekend. This is always a great learning opportunity for anyone in Main Street or anyone interested in preservation. See page 4 for information.

There was a great turn out for the first of many bake-offs across the state. The Shelbyville event took place on Feb. 28th. Brittany Mims was the winner and will advance to the regional competition that will be held in LaGrange on March 30th.

This certainly doesn't happen often. February 28th was a big day for Middlesboro! Their founder, Alexander Arthur's, great great granddaughter, Catherine Russell, came to visit !!! Below is what is know as the Arthur Block which still exists on what is locally known as fountain square.

Dreaming Creek Brewery continues their work on London's Main Street! They are working on the façade and are uncovering forgotten treasures. The original sign may find a new home inside :)

Another new business in downtown Morehead!

We hope everyone has a dog gone good time tomorrow celebrating Mardi Gras in your local Main St. community!

Join your favorite NKY Restoration Weekend historical home presenters and meet some new ones Saturday March 9, 2019 from 9AM-3:30PM.

This is a FREE event, HOWEVER due to the overwhelming response, REGISTRATION is strongly recommended and will be on a first come first serve basis.

All classes have a limited number of seats

While you are NKY Restoration you can drop in to Covington and see Hotel Covington. When we met with Katie Meyer Friday we were excited to see their Ida Lee Willis award and their Kentucky Main Street award hanging proudly in their lobby!

It is never too early to talk about a Kentucky girl! We are excited to learn that Ashland, KY native Wynonna Judd will be the headline performer for the Kentucky Mountain Laurel Festival!

CALL FOR ARTISTS!

DOWNTOWN BANNER PROJECT

Murray Main Street is dedicated to maintaining downtown and wants to incorporate local artists into our downtown community. The banner project is a way to get the children in our community involved in the importance of downtown and to encourage art to thrive. We will choose three (3) winners from entries received. Each winning banner design will be featured on ten light poles in the downtown historic district during the Spring season.

Requirements

1. Open to all students, ages 5-18.
2. Work that contains subject matter that is sexual, violent, political, drug-related or otherwise deemed inappropriate will not be accepted.
3. Selection of artwork will be at the sole discretion of the Murray Main Street Design Committee.
4. Drawings should be completed on the back of this form. DO NOT FOLD THE ENTRY.

Entry Deadline
