

Main Street Monday!

Just two of the beautiful towns you will see next week during our Fall Conference! Cadiz on the left, Princeton on the right.

We are excited about our upcoming Fall Conference!

We will be exploring the great Main Streets in Western KY and learning about their programs and communities. We will hear from some of our KYMS directors, others from the communities and Tennessee State Coordinator, Nancy Williams. Nancy was the Main St. director in Franklin, Tennessee for 17 years and will be sharing her knowledge and expertise with us. As always, good friends, good food, good fun! Safe travels everyone!

Congratulations to Bellevue Director, Jody Robinson, on receiving the Christy and Owsley Brown II Excellence in Preservation Public Service Award during today's Preservation Kentucky Awards.

"Dustin brings a unique set of skills and a personal touch that will help continue the Heart's mission of creating a vibrant and prosperous downtown."

There will be no Main Street Monday October 9th as we will be finishing preparations and packing up for the conference.

Cynthiana is getting another mural downtown. Jerielle painting the mural on Walnut St! She's doing it all by brush! Love how art is invigorating formally unused spaces!

What could your town do with its own Small Business Revolution?

Small businesses are the heartbeat of our communities and the economy, and nowhere are they more under siege than in small towns. Deluxe created the Small Business Revolution – Main Street to give a boost to small businesses and in turn, to reignite the spark that drives small towns. Each season of our award winning “Main Street” series, we invite the public to choose one small town to receive a $500,000 makeover from Deluxe to help revitalize the town and six of its businesses, capturing the transformation in our eight-part web series. Wabash, Indiana and Bristol Borough, Pennsylvania, won the first two seasons, and now it is time to nominate your favorite community.

Nominations are now open for Season 3! If you live in, work in, or just love a small town (population 50,000 or less) that could use a boost from Deluxe and the Small Business Revolution, nominate it today!

Nominations are open through Oct. 19.
