Main Street Monday!

Information to share with your businesses on Page 2.

The town of Williamsburg is celebrating it's 200th Anniversary! Lots of events are happing this month from Historical Marker dedications, to home tours, music, ice cream and more! Stop in and see director Nannie Hays, and Mayor Roddy.

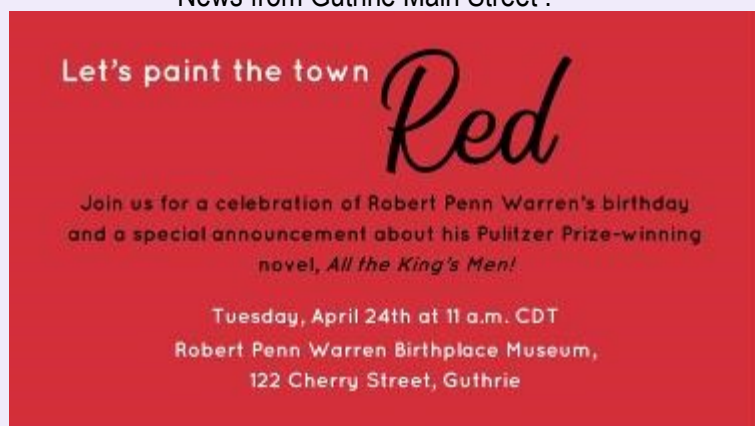

You will be welcomed with open arms!

These seven Kentucky Main Streets are participating: Cynthiana, Danville, La Grange, Maysville, Perryville, Shelbyville, and Taylorsville.

Vote every day even if this is not your town and encourage others to vote as well. Help fellow Kentucky Main Street communities be a winner!! Note: They are not listed by city or state in alphabetical order, you will need to type in the city at <https://www.mainstreetcontest.com/>

News from Guthrie Main Street !

Saturday, April 7th began our Bicentennial Celebration with the Dedication of the Samuel Cox Historical Marker. We were blessed with the attendance of his Great Great Granddaughter, Sadie and his Great Great Great Granddaughter's, Cindy and Ann. The icing on the cake was meeting his Great Great Great Great Granddaughter Brady Lynn! We had so much fun and will remember this always. I must add that we were joined with many more of Mr. Samuel Cox's family at the dedication.

Old Town Cafe – also known as Frank’s Old Town Cafe – is a hidden gem in Covington that is basically one big smile tucked inside a tiny diner. This Kentucky eatery is so inviting that it may just be the friendliest place in the entire world.

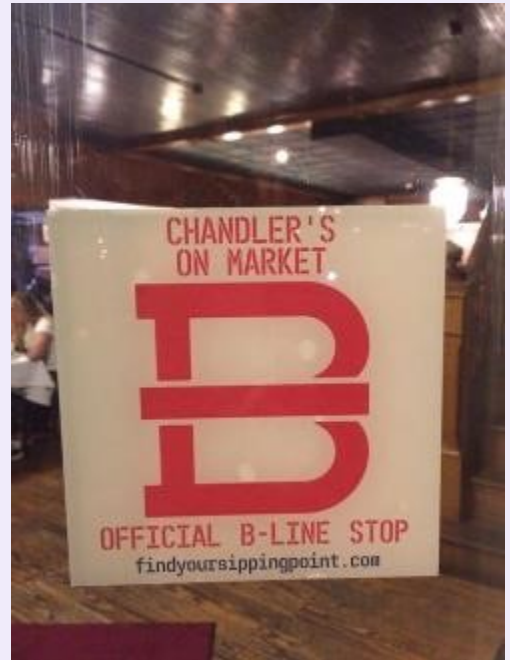

If you read through the rave reviews of this little family-owned diner, one of the most common compliments is that you'll be treated to a smile and stellar service from the moment you walk through the doors. The family that runs the restaurant is happy to see you and welcome you into their business, which really feels more like gathering with friends for a meal.

It just happens to be located across the street from the Main St. office. You can visit director, Katie Meyer, and have lunch!

Hey, #PikevilleDowntown! Big things are coming! Your Pikeville Main Street Program is working on some stuff to make your downtown experience second to none! We just wrapped up a planning session and we're so excited about the things to come! Follow our Twitter (PikevilleMainSt) and Instagram (PikevilleMainStreet) accounts to stay in the loop! You don't want to miss this! — with Tim Collins, Misty Rowe Potter, Minta Trimble, Elizabeth Thompson, Libby Carter, Suetta Clevinger, Gina Wilgocki Roberts and John Roberts.

Congratulations to Chandler's restaurant on Market Street in downtown Maysville - now an official stop on the B-Line! Chandler recently graduated from extensive training at Moonshine University and is ready to share

CONGRATULATIONS!! Andriot's in downtown Shelbyville is celebrating 40 Years in business!!! In honor of this milestone, they will be throwing a huge celebration right at their store, in the heart of Downtown Shelbyville. There will be food provided fresh off the famous Big Green Egg, light drinks, and dessert. We also decided to bring a personal favorite, The Ron Jones Quartet to jazz it up!

And a new business will open tomorrow in downtown Shelbyville! Bourbon Kitchen at 524 on Main Street! Owners Heather Veech and Alli Veech state it is with much joy we're finally able to announce our GRAND OPENING date!! Thanks for sticking by us through the wait!

Join us on Tuesday, April 10th for breakfast, lunch or dinner! We'll be open from 7am-10pm

May they have as much success and longevity as Andriot's!

The streetscape project in downtown Scottsville is nearing completion! They are in the process of the repaving of West Main St.

Some might ask about that Dollar Store (I did, years ago) Scottsville is home to the very first Dollar Store in the country. It was a locally owned business. It is located in an historic building on the square.

It's time for Taylorsville Main Street's DINNER IN JAIL Sat. April 28th

Get your tickets at The Red Scooter and/or The Tea Cup. Choose searing times foe 4:00 - 6:00 - 8:00 pm $25 per person.
