Main Street Monday!

Happy Fall Y'all!

It is hard to believe that today is the first day of autumn. Lots of fall activities will be taking place in our communities and we will share as many as possible with you!

What a special treat for everyone!

Winchester was one of the original programs in 1979!

It's football and RETAIL-GATING time!

The first director of Winchester's Main Street program stopped by on a cross country trip from Oregon where he's been living since leaving Winchester in 1982. Eric is responsible for our downtown National Register Historic District and with the exception of the St. George Hotel, we have lost remarkably few buildings since his tenure! Eric went on to have an extremely successful career, first at Historic Preservation League of Oregon and now as a land-use attorney. He is pictured with current director of Main Street Winchester, Rachel Alexander. It was great to meet the person who gave us such a great start!

Bardstown is part of the national tour!

Get more information on the National Solar Tour where you can visit some locations in Downtown Bardstown in link below.

Thank you Robin Blanton for being part of our Fall Main Street Conference tour.

ATTENTION BUSINESS/PROPERTY OWNERS!! Main Street Pineville is offering a GRAND PRIZE of $150 to the BEST STOREFRONT in Pineville this fall. Only one business will win the grand prize. All participating businesses are asked to have their windows finished by Friday, September 27 for the Pineville Hall of Fame weekend. We will post pictures of all participating businesses and allow the public to vote for the winner online. Join in on the fun!

Join us on Oct 12th from 10:00a-6:00p & Oct 13th from 10:00a-5p for the 39th Annual Bardstown Main Street's Arts, Craft, & Antiques Fair. 2019 marks the 39th anniversary of this rite of fall in one of Kentucky's most beautiful and historic towns. There will be over 250 Vendors of Hand Crafts, Retail, and Food where there is something for everyone. We will also have an Entertainment seating area and a fun Kids Zone. It's a great time for the whole family so we hope to see you there! Thank you to our Title Sponsor LG&E for their continued support.

Pikeville director, Mintia Trimble found the Hello Kitty Café on a recent trip. How fun it would be to have my office in one of those! They certainly wouldn't have any problem finding KYMS.

Tour120 is a statewide initiative to raise awareness of the importance of historic preservation and heritage tourism in all of Kentucky's 120 counties, according to a news release from Preservation Kentucky.

Another Tour120 will be held in Perryville on Oct. 6, which is the day following the annual Perryville Battlefield Commemoration event.

Main Street Perryville Executive Director Vicki Goode said the guided tour will be of the Johnson-Britton House, Carrick-Parks House, and "hopefully" the Bath House, "which is very new to us," if work can be completed in time.

Following the tour, visitors will walk down Merchant's Row and onto the old Boyle House, which is located on the corner of Second and Bragg streets, where they will be served refreshments from the town's brand new cafe, Salted Honey, Goode said.

Along with the tour, re-enactors will be dressed in period costumes at campsites set up at each stop. They will describe to visitors how the Civil War, especially the Battle of Perryville, affected the town and its residents, Goode said.

Tickets must be reserved in advance by calling the Main Street Perryville office at (859) 332-1862 and are $20 per person. Proceeds will go toward Main Street Perryville's restoration project on the Karrick-Parks House.

We love it when local students venture to downtown Danville and enjoy the sights! Thank you to Danville Schools for supporting local field trips.

Great idea from Beattyville Main Street

Hometown Hero's Banner Project

The City of Beattyville, along with Beattyville Main Street would like to offer a special way to honor and pay tribute to all past and current serving members of the Armed Forces. Our community has seen its fair share of citizens who have taken the call to serve our country protecting our freedom and they are the heart of this project.

Each banner, available for purchase for $100.00 will be in honor of a military member (with ties to Beattyville/Lee County) to include NAME, BRANCH OF SERVICE and a PHOTOGRAPH (see sample below, Thank you Chief Shadle for your service and sacrifice). They will be hung and displayed on our Main Street lamp posts during Veterans Day, Memorial Day and 4th of July.

For an application go to this website:

A new business in London! Expanding from the original business in Pineville. We look forward to seeing them in other Main Street communities!

We are very excited for Mike and Gina Wilson and their expansion of Sauced: Craft Pizza, Pasta, Salad - London, KY. This great new location at 202 South Broad Street will have indoor and outdoor seating as well as a private dining room available for special events. Congratulations to Mike and Gina, we look forward to this great new place in downtown London!

Where can you get an 8 course meal and entertainment for $30?

At this great event in Taylorsville this coming Saturday!

Contact Beverly for more info.
